Clemenceau Is Wounded by Assassin

Real Revolution May Soon Break Out In Germany

BY FRANK J. TAYLOR.
Copyright, 1919, by the United Press Weimar, Feb. 18.—The real revolution threatens to break out in Germany at any hour. This imminent upheaval is not political but economic and it is being organized by the workmen themselves.

For the past three days, delegates from the workers council of the Essen region, have been serving ultimatums on the new German cabinet, insisting upon socialization of industries, minimum wages, higher than the present maximum, recognition of all workmen's councils and abolition of capitalism. The workers program borders on communism but they have declared against violent methods,
"unless absolutely necessary."

More than half the cabinet members are devoting their entire time to dealing with the workmen's representatives, who are headed by Theodore Wille of Essen. Chancellor Scheidemann is attempting to compromise. This does not satisfy the distrustful workmen who are utilizing every hour of delay to extend their organization, increase their supplies and infect government troops with the spirit of non-resistance against the workers when the break comes.

The correspondent interviewed Wille, who is a clear minded, practical labor leader, about forty years of age.
"We do not want violence," he stated. "We want fulfillment of the revolution, which so far has not been revolution, merely a change in government," said Wille.

"The same upper classes, who ruled before are grabbing control of the republic. If the cabinet refuses our demands, I have authority to start a general strike in the Krupps and other factories, and seize the mines and railways within 24 hours. Thirty thousand armed workmen are organized under my command in central Germany alone. The Berlin-Hamburg regions are equally organized and armed. Dusseldorf, Essen, Leipzig and other cities are under control of the workmen's councils, whose administration is entirely orderly.

"We are not Spartacists nor communists. We are simply workmen, demanding a genuine revolution. I have talked with most of the cabinet members. They are simply trying to cut us off. I told Noske (Military governor) what would happen if they ordered the troops out against us. He ordered and tore his hair. He knows we have the majority of his troops with us. Inside of a day we can tie up all means of communication in Germany."

Scheidemann blames the new armistice terms for the present situation.
"Suppression of bolshevism depends on whether we are able to provide sufficient food," said the Chancellor.

"Only after this is done, can the new cabinet take up its duties of rebuilding the nation's economic life. Socialization can be applied to only such industries as mines and electrical systems.
We cannot socialize where productivity will be decreased and individual initiative lessened.

Everything depends on our connections with the world's markets enabling the lowering of both food prices and abnormal wages."

LINING UP FOR AND AGAINST A LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Left to right, above; Senators Lodge, Borah and Reed. Below: Senators Williams and Hitchcock.

A great battle over the league of nations idea is in prospect in the United States senate. Senator Borah, Republican, says: "I will not support any league of nations plan even if Christ himself should endorse it." This sentiment is echoed by Senator Reed, Democrat, and others. Senator Lodge, ranking Republican on the foreign relations committee, is thought to be hostile to the league plan as drafted. Among those favoring the league are Senator Hitchcock, chairman of the foreign relations committee, and Senator Williams, both Democrats.

TIGER OF FRANCE IS SLIGHTLY WOUNDED AS HE LEAVES HOME

Paris, Feb. 19.—Georges Clemenceau, premier of France, was shot and slightly wounded by a boy named Cotin, as he entered a motor car in front of his residence this morning. His assailant was arrested.

"It's nothing" was the "Tiger's" only comment after he had walked back into the house, unassisted.

The assailant who refused to make any statement regarding his motive, is about 18 years old.
He is a French civilian and is said to live in Campiegne.

Clemenceau was seating himself in his limousine, when the boy suddenly sprang forward and fired 8 shots from a pistol. Six of them hit the front of the car. Two bullets penetrated the glass door, one striking the Premier on the inner side of the right arm, near the shoulder, inflicting a flesh wound.

A policeman grabbed Cotin. Another man, whose identity is not yet known, rushed to Cotin's assistance. A crowd quickly gathered and attacked the two men who were battling with the policeman. Cotin was badly mauled and the policeman was slightly wounded. Clemenceau refusing offers of assistance, walked back into his home.

Cotin was later said to be a well-known anarchist. Clemenceau was reported to attach no political significance to the attack. Captain Adre Fardieu, commissioner of Franco-American relations, said that before the bullet lodged in Clem-enceau's shoulder it passed through the fleshy part of his neck but did not sever any arteries.

Clemenceau, as permanent chairman of the peace congress is the biggest figure in Europe at present. He became premier Nov. 16, 1917, and despite his 77 years has survived several bitter political battles since that time. By many critics he is given equal credit with Marshal Foch for the allied victory. He is popularly known as "The Tiger" and has lived up to that name during the peace conference.

"The Tiger" was born in 1841, during the reign of Louis Philippe. He became a fighting republican during Napoleon III's reign.

As a boy, he preached republicanism to the peasants about his birthplace in Vendee, southwestern France, which was then a royalist center. He was often greeted with pitchforks.

After studying medicine, Clemenceau went to England and later to the United States, where he visited every city of importance and studied American institutions. He speaks English fluently.

Clemenceau, returning to France, was Mayor of Montmartre at 30. Then he was elected to the chamber of deputies. As an anti-imperialist, he there fought France's participation in the British-Egyptian campaign. He was accused of taking British gold for letting England have a free hand and lost his seat in the Chamber.

For ten years Clemenceau's adversaries thought him politically dead, but he was merely preparing for re-entry into the arena. He founded two or three newspapers, wrote several books and then quite suddenly "came back." This time he was elected to the senate.

Clemenceau was premier at the time of the Casablanca affair between France and Germany when, for a time war appeared to be inevitable.
Germany had insisted upon an apology from France and the latter, as Germany and everybody knew, was in no position for war. But Clemenceau sent back this message:

"Tell them there will be no apology."

And there was none.
The Premier met with but one serious defeat in politics, and that was administered by President Wilson.
It is said Clemenceau will never forgive Poincaré for winning the presidency over the Clemenceau candidate,
M. Pams.

PREMIER CLEMENCEAU

After the peace preliminaries got under way, Clemenceau created an apparently embarrassing situation by telling the chamber of deputies he was in favor of "retention of the balance of power" system, at precisely the same time President Wilson was telling the British in Manchester that the "balance of power" must give way to the league of nations. It has since developed that Clemenceau merely was seeking to obtain guarantee for France's future
give Poincaré for winning the presidency against aggression.

WEDDING QUIETLY SOLEMNIZED ON TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Miss Florence Adele Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester E. Owens of East Second street, became the bride of Marion J. Reeves Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the service being solemnized by the Rev. A. J. Kestle at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church.

Their attendants were Mr. and Mrs.
Raymond Owens of South Charleston, relatives of the bride, and themselves a recent bridal couple. The bride wore for her marriage a navy blue silk suit with taupe hat and footwear and gloves to match. She and her maid both wore handsome corsage bouquets of pink rose buds.

Immediately following the service the bridal party went to South Charleston, where Mr. and Mrs.
Reeves will be guests for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Owens.

Mrs. Reeves is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Owens, and a very charming and lovely girl. Mr.
Reeves is a popular young Xenian. He is connected with The Xenia Shoe Manufacturing Company.

NOTED FAYETTE CO. ENGINEER IS DEAD

Washington C. H. O., Feb. 19.— Word was received here from Bowling Green, Ky., that R. C. Hunt, of this city, 65 years old, had died there yesterday afternoon of influenza.
Hunt was one of the best known construction engineers in America and attained world-wide prominence through his connections with foreign enterprises.

Hunt was in active charge of the construction work done by the Calvin S. Brice syndicate in the building of the Railway of China in the late nineties, having been selected for that duty after doing extensive engineering work on construction and maintenance of railways in South America.

Among his big construction exploits in the United States is the building of two and a half miles of the New York subway in the Ft. George district and the construction of the Baltimore and Ohio "cut off of the Cumberland Mountains."

Hunt's body will be brought here
for burial.

FEAR CLEMENCEAU'S
CONDITION IS SERIOUS

Paris, Feb. 19.—It is feared that the condition of Premier Clemenceau is more serious than at first announced.

MUCH IMPORTANT LEGISLATION BEFORE OHIO LEGISLATURE

Columbus, Feb. 19.—The fight of various municipalities to prevent their gas company's from pulling stakes and shutting off service without the consent of the state utilities was transferred to the house today following the action of that body in rebuilding its committee on public utilities for having attempted to mother the Miller bill.

The senate today got from the house the Luchinsinger bill which puts all policemen and firemen in Ohio on an eight hour work day basis. It came from the house with the impetus of having received 100 votes for and only 11 against.

A bill introduced in the senate by Sparks, Dayton, gives councils the right to submit to a vote of the people bond issues large enough to buy street car systems.

Sparks is favoring another bill which would enable the penitentiary commission to use the "unit" plan in its building operations instead of being forced to go ahead on the new penitentiary near London as a whole.

Boys under 12 and girls under 16 can't sell anything on the streets before 5 o'clock in the morning or after 8 in the evening, under a bill backed by Senator Whittemore. Akron, without a permission badge from the board of education. Newspaper route carriers are exempted.

PEACE PACT MAY BE READY FOR FINAL DISCUSSION IN APRIL

BY FRED S. FERGUSON
Paris, Feb. 19.—American, British, French and Italian delegates discussed the program for a preliminary peace today with the intention of having the outline completed soon after President Wilson's return to Paris. Belief was expressed that the pact might be ready for final discussion by the middle of April. The length to which the sessions will continue after the Germans are called in, is problematical, though the delegates are hopeful of effecting the peace settlement by June.

In the meantime discussion of boundaries in which the allied powers are concerned will continue, but it is not necessary that an agreement will have been reached before the preliminary peace is presented.

The committee on responsibility for the war was reported today to be encountering difficulties in considering the case of the former kaiser as there is no precedent on which to proceed.

The question of possible extradition for instance necessitates the closest examination. There is no desire to take action that might possibly result in Wilhelm being cast in the role of a martyr.

Old strategic boundary idea has again bobbed up through presentation of Serbia's claims. The Serbs want a stretch of territory fifteen to thirty kilometers (9 to 18 miles) wide along the Bulgarian frontier, claiming it is necessary for protection of an important railway line.

Italy's refusal to arbitrate her dispute with the Jugo-Slavs over Dalmatia has not created a ripple as it is based on the grounds that all territorial claims will be examined by the conference and there is no reason why an exception shall be made in this case.

SENATOR POINDEXTER TO LAUNCH FIGHT TO DEFEAT LEAGUE OF NATIONS

(BY L. C. MARTIN.)

Washington, Feb. 19.—Senator Poindexter, Washington, planned today to launch in the senate, a campaign frankly aimed at defeat of the league of nations plan as outlined in the constitution agreed to in Paris.

Poindexter exercised great care in preparation of the speech which he planned to deliver regardless of President Wilson's wish that discussion in congress be refrained from until his arrival.

Senator Hitchcock, chairman of the foreign relations committee, indicated early today Poindexter's speech probably would force him to enter the discussion.

Under the present temper, senators were believed to display intense bitterness if the debate became general and prolonged.

The senate foreign relations and the house foreign affairs committees held a joint session today, at which the league was discussed.

The purpose of the meeting however, was to decide whether to send a delegation to Paris, in March to attend the inter-parliamentary union, at the invitation of France.

MRS. WILLIAM HAYES PAINFULLY BURNED AT MOTHER'S HOME

Mrs. William Hayes was painfully but not seriously burned about the face early Wednesday morning when fire destroyed two rooms at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Brennan on Locust street.

The fire started from a gas connection to a hot plate in one of the rooms, which is part of a summer kitchen and adjoins the house. Mrs.
Hayes, who spent the night with her mother, first smelled the smoke and saw the flames shooting out of the window. She was greeted by flames when she opened the door to investigate, the blaze burning her face painfully and singeing her hair.

The fire department was called about 6:10 o'clock and confined the flames to the summer kitchen which was burned off and all contents, including a considerable amount of furnishings, were burned in the conflagration. The loss to that part of the building is total.

Dr. W. A. Galloway was called and dressed Mrs. Hayes' burns, which he found fortunately, not seriously. He also attended Mrs. Brennan, who has not been well and who was ill following the excitement occasioned by the fire.

CHARMING AFFAIR AT O. S. AND S. O. HOME

Mrs. J. P. Elton and Miss Rosalie Bauerle were hostesses at a delightful little afternoon affair in the parlors of the administration building at the O. S. and S. O. Home Tuesday, when they entertained the cottage matrons at a thimble party.

Because of the nearness of Washington's Birthday things of a patriotic nature were featured. The parlor was decked in flags and potted plants, and the favors were significant of the "Father of His Country." Ice cream cake and coffee, and candy cherries were served. Forty guests enjoyed the afternoon.

KING GEORGE SENDS MESSAGE TO "TIGER"

London, Feb. 19.—King George today sent the following message to Premier Clemenceau:

"I am shocked to hear of the dastardly attack. I earnestly trust that your injuries are not serious, and thanks to your splendid energy and courage you will soon be restored to health and will continue your great and valued efforts for France and her allies."

BUYERS PRESENT AT SALE FROM ALL PARTS OF STATE

Stock was sold to buyers all over this part of the state at the sale held by D. and G. M. Turner at their farm southeast of Xenia Tuesday. The sale totalled $2650.

There were twenty-three head of registered Jersey cattle in the sale, that averaged $120 a head. The highest price paid for a single head was $350. Calves less than a week old sold in the sale and brought the unusual prices of $45 to $50. It is estimated that stock went all over this part of the state, there being buyers from Springfield, Urichsville, Piqua and other towns in this section. According to the Messrs. Turner the newspaper advertising used helped greatly in assembling a crowd for this sale.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray streaked and faded hair is grand mother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

ALL CHILDREN LOVE 'SYRUP OF FIGS' FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give it when feverish, cross, bilious, for bad breath or sour stomach.

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative," they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has direction for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups, plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt. Adv.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

The secret of keeping young is to feel young — to do this you must watch your liver and bowels — there's no need of having a sallow complexion — dark rings under your eyes — pimples — a bilious look in your face — dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

RECEIVES NEWS OF HIS BROTHER'S DEATH

J. G. Robinson of the Stevenson road, has received word of the death of his oldest brother, John N. Robinson, which occurred at his home in Phillip, N. D. He was 91 years of age.

Mr. Robinson was a native of Greenfield O. He joined the rush to the gold fields in the early fifties, and for 19 years followed the life of a miner along the Pacific coast. Twice he made large "stakes" but lost everything when cattle in which he had invested $50,000 were taken in the Modoc war when he attempted to drive them from southern California to Montana.

His son R. F. Robinson was born in Deadwood, and was the first white native of South Dakota. He knew Kit Carson and was a personal friend of "Buffalo Bill" and "Wild Bill," helping to lay out the body of the latter after the murder at Deadwood, and was doorkeeper at the trial of Jack McCall for the killing.

"WANTED—A THOUSAND LIVINGSTONS."

We have all been talking war news so long that we ought to be glad to get off onto other subjects as a relief to the mind. Coming nearer home, in fact to our next door neighbor, let us be neighborly and discuss the condition and ask if there is anything that we can do that will benefit our friends, the Mexicans, directly on our South. Many of our interests are mutual. Doubtless if we had done our full duty by them we should have helped them to a higher plane of living long ago, and this would have obviated some of the clashes that have arisen between us. As far as we can learn, conditions have been improving there of late—but

With at least fifty per cent of her people unable to read or write, Mexico is herself trying to remedy that condition, and under the new government, has formed a widespread plan for popular education, but lack of money prevents its being set in operation for some time to come, and it will always lack for teachers until enough are trained to run the schools the way we do in this country. When they can do that, they will have made a wonderful step forward.

To show that our good President, Woodrow Wilson, takes a wise interest in our neighbor country, we quote a couple of extracts from recent addresses of his, as follows: "The people of Mexico are striving for the rights that are fundamental to life and happiness—fifteen million oppressed men, overburdened women and pitiful children." "The peace, prosperity and contentment of Mexico mean more to us than merely an enlarged field for our enterprise. We shall yet prove to the Mexican people that we know how to serve them without first thinking how we shall serve ourselves." These are kind words.

One of the results of ignorance in any country is the degradation of the women of the land. In Mexico the women have been set at primitive and exacting tasks, demanding so much time and strength that they have little of themselves to give toward their own advancement, even if opportunity offered. The making of the corn cakes or tortillas, which are the staple food of the poorer people, is a slavish task. The corn for them is ground by hand between two stones, which a woman rubs one upon the other. The writer has seen a woman at it, sitting flat upon the ground. Think of that, in this twentieth century. And it takes hard labor to make enough of these tortillas to make enough for a family meal.

The means by which any American agency can be of help to Mexico are outlined in the words of Senor de la Garza, one of Mexico's leading lawyers and member of the Mexican Congress, who recently toured this country. He said: "The day in which the United States would send to Mexico Bibles and Books; the day in which the United States would go to Mexico to open schoolhouses; the day in which the United States will send to Mexico an army of teachers and missionaries; that day the United States would be rendering a great service to my country and to humanity."

This is the time of opportunity in Mexico. The minds of the people are open, due to the influences of the revolutions. They are thinking for themselves. They are eager for schools, churches, hospitals and for whatever we bring to them as friends and neighbors. Her contact is with us. It is from us she learns. She patterns her schools after ours. Many of her ideas of political destiny come from us. She is glad for our churches to be built in her midst. Her business men meet our business men. The currents of influence towards christianity and democracy flow from this country into Mexico.

We have, in addition, the fact that one hundred thousand Mexicans have crossed our borders and practically become citizens of the United States, and their children are being educated in our public schools in the border States, particularly in Texas. The men are valuable laborers in the sugar industry and railroad construction. They live under the Stars and Stripes but many of them do not know what they mean or the American ideals for which they stand. Many of the men, some of them at least, are somewhat educated. They will be going home some time and telling their old neighbors what we have over here, and these neighbors will be coming over to see for themselves.

What a wonderful "Open Door" for usefulness is this Mexican neighbor of ours. One paper heads its Mexican article: "Wanted a Thousand Livingstons." And in twenty-four hours you can get into this "foreign field" of usefulness.

DO IT NOW.

(RICHARD H. EDMONDS, Editor Manufacturers Record.)

Have you been planning to build a factory, a church, a school, a home or even a garage?

Has your community felt the need of improving its streets, its municipal buildings, its water or light or sewerage systems?

Have you planned to improve or modernize your plant?

Then, DO IT NOW!

Don't wait on somebody else, don't wait to see if you can get the last bottom notch in prices. Don't wait to see if labor, struggling to find a job, can be squeezed down to accept a few cents or a few dollars less per day.

Don't wait, in order to help break down prices of materials as well as of labor, but whatever needs to be done, if the money is available, "DO IT NOW!"

Do it as a part of your work of patriotism, content to write off a little extra cost if that should become necessary. Perchance this may never be necessary.

You owe it to civilization against Bolshevism, you owe it to the soldiers who have offered their lives for you, to do all in your power to create employment if that employment is in productive things which mean permanency.

Economically it would be unsound to create employment in building a house in order to tear it down later on; but if the house is needed, if the plant will be benefited by new equipment, if the church or the school or the municipal improvement has been delayed by the war, take up the work at once and push it through.

Employment is a deadly foe to Bolshevism. Profitable wages make for sobriety, integrity and patriotism.

Upon the active, aggressive work of men of broad vision, men who dare to do things for world welfare while working for personal advancement, men who are not narrow and niggardly in their vision, will depend the future of our country and of civilization.

A saving at the spigot of business and municipal expenditures just now might lead to a great outpouring at the bung-hole.

Wise thrift is not always found in piecemeal economy.

Then, if financially able, let your policy be "on with your work!" You owe a responsibility to the world.

DO IT NOW and you will be wise in your day and generation.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Mr. Walter Wike of the Xenia post-office returned yesterday from a ten days' visit in Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Spahr will entertain a number of friends at dinner Friday, the ladies being invited for the afternoon and evening, the gentlemen at 6 o'clock.

The intimations of the spring primary are beginning to be heard. We note today that Mr. A. Little, the Old Town Miller, is getting ready to make the race for country treasurer, backed by a phalanx of supporters.

Three Xenia boys, Fritz Saenger, George Downs and Pat Gillespie, went to Yellow Springs last night to attend a social of which a cake walk was one of the attractions. The cake was won by Fritz Saenger and his partner. The prize was brought home by him and Fritz is the proudest man in the city today.

BRINGING-UP FATHER

THE PROMOTER'S WIFE

BY JANE PHELPS.

BAB'S MOTHER GIVES HER GOOD ADVICE.

CHAPTER XV.

Neil was a man of slight artistic culture, but he took an instinctive delight in the beautiful. Anything really lovely gave him pleasure, and inversely anything ugly gave him pain, that at times seemed almost physical.

"You like it?" he asked. "It was our first visit to the new apartment we had rented since it had been decorated for us. 'Like it!' I just love it and who wouldn't? But it is so large and I shall have to have another servant. I dread that."

"Never mind. Call her the thorn in your rose, if you like, but don't let her spoil the beauty of the rose for you." And Neil, well-groomed, alert, brimming over with good nature and satisfaction, eager and keen, drew me to him and, kissing me many times, added: "My rose, aren't you, Bab? The setting is none too good for you."

When Neil was like this I was repaid for any carelessness, any laxness on his part. I would forget everything save that I loved him, and that he belonged to me.

Neil's very appearance was reassuring. I was overwhelmed by the optimism of prosperity, and it brushed from my mind all misgivings. I seldom allowed them room, save when something was said to cause them. But as I knew few people, most of them introduced by Neil, it was rare that anything unpleasant or unsettling reached my ears.

I had made many acquaintances, but few friends. I had erred on occasions, and found that a supposed friend was really an unfortunate acquaintance. In one or two cases intolerable bores. But Neil delighted in company. He loved to entertain—if we did it lavishly. He wanted that, like everything else he did, to show his worldly success. I was not surprised when he expatiated upon the size of the dining room, the capacity of the apartment, its appropriateness for entertaining.

"Come now, dear, let us go home. You look tired," I said. All suddenly I had noticed he was fagged. "Anyway I am."

"Yes I am tired," he acknowledged.

So we turned off the light and went home.

When we reached home he sank heavily into a chair. He looked older, and worn. I noticed for the first time a nervous twitching around his mouth. For an instant I felt irritated at the thought of the way he wasted himself to add to his wealth; and so made himself too tired to tell me of his love as often as he used to.

I had received a letter from mother that day, and I now brought it to Neil to read. (A habit I had formed when we were first married.) "Read it to me," he said.

"I told her about the new apartment, described it, and also told her how wonderfully you were getting on," I said as I unfolded the letter and commenced to read it in response to his request.

"Go slow, dear," mother said, "you are both young. Neil is a very young man to make enough money to live in such luxury as you describe. You must be very proud of his ability. But remember that the sun does not always shine and prepare for the rainy day that is almost sure to come at some time in your life. Father says to tell Neil to keep away from speculation. He says it is a rock on which many young men split, and that it is better to go slow and sure. Of course we do not know that Neil does speculate, but I guess father thought he would warn you."

"We all miss you very much, and in response to your invitation may soon make you a short visit." There was much more, but this was all that directly related to Neil in any way.

"You don't speculate, do you Neil?" I asked as I laid the letter down.

"Of course I do! everyone does now-a-days. But not in the way your father thinks. But no big money is made without taking risks. I'll take a chance any time."

Tomorrow—Blanche Orton Monopolizes Neil.

Durham Cathedral.

Durham cathedral and Durham castle, standing on their promontory above the river Waer, form a picture which is, in its way, incomparable. The distant view of Lincoln cathedral, rising above the houses of the ancient city, is very beautiful, and the memory will supply many other pictures of cathedral-crowned hilltops, among which is Bergamo-Siena. Durham need, however, fear no comparisons either in England or in any other country. The great Norman pile could hold its own, too, among cathedrals, on its own intrinsic merits even without the enhanced effect it gains from its splendid position.—London Mail.

"A RANK OUTSIDER."

BOWERSVILLE

His leg shattered by a bullet received on the bloodstained battle fields of France, Rudolph Wolf, son of Mrs. R. H. Wolf, of Bowersville, has submitted to five operations, on the limb which has finally been amputated above the knee.

According to a letter just received by Mrs. Wolf, her son, who but recently returned from overseas, is now in the Brooklyn Navy Hospital, where he is recuperating following the fifth operation which was necessary to take another inch off of the leg bone above the knee. The bullet first struck him in the calf of the leg but conditions following it necessitated the amputation of the member. In his last letter home the young man said that he is just able to be up following the last operation and is wearing his clothes now. He expects to come home soon.

On the Return of a Book.

I give humble and hearty thanks for the safe return of this book, which, having endured the perils of my friend's bookcase and the bookcase of my friend's friends, now returns to me in reasonably good condition. I give humble and hearty thanks that my friend did not see fit to give this book to his infant as a plaything, nor use it as an ashtray for his burning cigar, nor as a teething ring for his mastiff. When I lent this book I doomed it as lost. I was resigned to the bitterness of the long parting; I never thought to look upon its pages again. But, now that my book is coming back to me, I rejoice and am exceedingly glad! Bring hither the fattest morocco and let us rebound the volume and set it on the shelf of honor; for this my book was lent, and is returned again. Presently, therefore, I may return some of the books that I myself have borrowed.—Life.

RODS GIVE NO PROTECTION

French Vine Growers Find They Derive No Benefit From Metal Rods They Erected.

The vine-growing region of the Gironde, in France, has been quite extensively equipped in recent years with tall metal rods, similar to lightning rods, known as parageles or "electric Nagaras," and alleged to afford protection from hailstorms. A careful study of the functioning of these rods has recently been published by M. E. Courty of the University of Bordeaux. The statistics presented show that numerous hailstorms have occurred in the vicinity of nearly all the rods. Moreover, according to M. Courty, there has been no obvious change in the character of these storms since the erection of the rods. His article points out some of the principal reasons for the erroneous conclusions that others have drawn in favor of them; for example, the fact that, normally, only one thunderstorm in five is attended by hail; that the area over which hail falls is normally very small in comparison with that covered by the thunderstorm, and hail tends to occur in scattered patches or narrow bands; and, lastly, that a district in which hail has fallen for two or three years in succession often remains free from hail for years, regardless of the installation of hail-protecting devices.

MAKE USE OF WASTE HEAT

Councilors of Reykjavik, Iceland, Apply System That Reduces the Taxation of the Citizens.

The city council of Reykjavik, Iceland, has now begun the baking of bread in a special bakery in connection with the gas works, where modern machinery has been installed in a special building. The result was excellent, in that the waste heat from the gas works is being used in a practicable and profitable manner, and in the course of a short time all the black bread which may be needed will be baked in the new bread factory.

The idea was that of a young student there, and it is considered one of the best means of saving coal, time and money. Three-pound loaves have been completely baked in three hours in considerable numbers.

$200.00 Cash Prizes for the best answers

You never saw me, folks, did you, without the famous kettle on my tail? Everybody wonders why it's there. Well I've never told the secret yet, but now I'm going to give everybody who reads this a chance to guess it, and at the same time win one of a number of liberal money prizes. Come one, come all!—Help solve the great mystery.

Here's how to win:

First, there's no string on this contest. Anybody interested in horses or kettles is invited to send in an answer. All that is that you don't use more than 100 words, and that you be sure to mention "Chuck Keenard Says" in which Purina feeds are always packed.

Now, don't be afraid—come on in everybody! The best answers take the prizes—regardless of fancy language or swell handwriting. Plain "Horse Sense" ideas on a post card may win.

Second, sign your name plainly, and also tell me the name of your feed dealer. Third, mail your guess on or before National Mail Purina Day, that is February 24th—I selected it specially because it's favorite feed, Purina O-Molene, turns my owner 25% of his feed.

Purina O-Molene is wonderful feed for mules and horses. I know, cause I'm a mule myself. It is economical, because I like it, and assimilate all of it that I eat. I never have trouble digesting all of my O-Molene. Also, it makes me husky and healthy, so that I can do more work for my owner.

Now then, here are the prizes: For the best answer the prize will be $100.00. For the next best answer the prize will be $25.00. For the next best answer the prize will be $10.00. To the dealer whose customer wins first prize $30.00. To the dealer whose customer wins second prize $10.00. To the dealer whose customer wins third prize $5.00.

The judges will be: WALKER HILL, President Mechanics American National Bank, St. Louis, Mo. A. G. WHITE, Advertising Manager, Brown Shoe Co., St. Louis, Mo. W. H. DAWFORTH, President and Founder of the Purina Mills, St. Louis, Mo.

The winning answers will be mailed to you on or before March 24th.

Send your answer straight to me (and hurry) addressed to:

Maud Purina, Care Purina Mills, St. Louis, Mo.

PAUL CRESSWELL
RECOGNIZES FRIEND

The picture of Frederick Semprini, chief instructor of the American Pilots' school in Milan, Italy, and a daring aviator, which was carried in the columns of this paper recently attracted the attention of Lieutenant Paul Cresswell of Cedarville, who knows Semprini well as he was his instructor in Italy.

Lieutenant Cresswell, received all his air experience in Italy, learning to fly there at the American Pilots' school at Foggia and it was while Semprini was located there that the Greene County boy made his acquaintance.

Frederic Semprini.

"I have flown with Semprini many times," said Lieutenant Cresswell, "and I was certainly surprised when I saw his picture in your paper. He is rated as the best Caproni pilot in the world."

Lieutenant Cresswell explained that Semprini was chief tester for the Caproni factory, which explains his skill with the big machine. In connection with the picture it was stated that Semprini was then chief instructor of the American pilot's school at Milan, going north from Foggia, just a short time before Lieutenant Cresswell left that place. According to the story, Semprini has written to an officer in the U. S. that a huge Caproni machine is being prepared at Milan for a trans-Atlantic flight and it is said that Semprini's friends would not be surprised if he should attempt the trip himself.

Semprini's picture is reproduced with this article.

Plucking Ostrich Feathers.

Ostrich feathers are plucked every eight months. At the proper time the bird is enticed into a small wedge-shaped enclosure by a tempting basin of corn or sugar beets. As soon as the ostrich discovers the trick he becomes furious, but a stocking is pulled over his head, and when blinded he becomes as timid and helpless as a child. While one man holds the ostrich another plucks the feathers, the larger plumes being cut, while the smaller ones are pulled out. Great care and skill is exercised to see that the socket of the feather is not injured, and so spoil a new growth. The operation is practically painless to the bird. The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals investigated the methods employed and have decided that the ostrich is in no need of its protection.

Mrs. Jones
Tells How
PEPSINCO
Helped Her Stomach!

I just suffered everything. Nothing agreed with me at all. A few minutes after eating I had pain, sourness and as a rule would belch bad tasting stuff.

I tried doctors; I tried medicines; all without effect. Pepsinco was recommended. I honestly believe that I can thank Pepsinco for my good health to-day.

I can eat anything and I am without pain. I would suggest that if there is anything wrong with your stomach; that you go to any drug store and get a small package of Pepsinco.

The above is a testimonial from a party who followed the advice of a friend. Suppose you do the same.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS AT THE WOLF HOME

Mrs. M. L. Wolf's attractive home at North King street was opened for a bi-monthly meeting of the Junior Woman's Club Tuesday afternoon. With the springtime in sight, the program was in keeping with the season, and quotations on trees and shrubbery opened the afternoon's literary and musical offering. Mrs. S. O. Hale then read a most entertaining paper on Our Highways. She gave a history of the Dixie and Lincoln Highways, and compared the national, state and county roads of our country with those of the old world, showing how the highways of the foreign countries are generally in better condition than those of our land. Mrs. F. C. Hubbell's paper on "The Automobile and Its Benefit to Humanity" was as interesting as Mrs. Hale's. She spoke of the wonderful development of the motor car within a few years, and pointed out in particular its value during the war just concluded, when it in many ways proved its superiority over other modes of transportation for the government service. The club women also enjoyed very much two spring songs which were sung by Mrs. Graham Bryson, to a piano accompaniment by Mrs. J. P. Hamaker. The next meeting of the club will be held March 4.

BIJOU

Few artists in the world of the silent drama have received the untold praise from the press and public that has been afforded to Miss Louise Glaum. "The Lady of the Camellias," which will be seen on the screen of the Bijou theatre Thursday, is her second Paralta play "Shackled." Despite the fact that prior to her joining the Paralta forces, she was known throughout the world as a screen vampire, her interpretations were so cleverly enacted that, although she never secured the sympathy of her audience, there was that irresistible something about her acting that won for her the hearts of the countless millions who hoped to be able to see her some day in roles other than that of a seductive nature. In this picture she has acquired this quality, and her work is of a highly dramatic nature.

ORPHIUM

"A Soul Without Windows," naturally required the cutting of windows, and this is what Ethel Clayton, wild elf in a Quaker village, does in the newest World release "A Soul Without Windows," which is at the Orphium Thursday. The story is a peculiarly new and original one adopting a new course of construction and plot. In the piece Miss Clayton is supported by Richard Larke, Eugene Woodward, Victor Tennard, Frank Mayo, David Davies and others well known.

A picture of Joe Hayslip, formerly a printer connected with the Greene County Journal at Jamestown, now a U. S. Marine, was used to illustrate the article "The Last Fight" by Elizabeth Frazer and published on page 8, of the February 8th issue of the Saturday Evening Post. While the name of the young Marine was not mentioned in the article he was easily recognized by friends here and in Washington C. H., his former home. Hayslip is shown in full uniform of the Marines and standing at "port arms" with his rifle. Under the picture are the words: Semper Fidelis! Changed in the vernacular means: "The first to fight and the last to quit." Hayslip was employed on the Greene County Journal at the outbreak of trouble with Mexico when he enlisted in the Marines and was one of the landing party at Vera Cruz. He has seen strenuous fighting in the trenches in France. Mrs. Minnie Pulwider, who has resigned as matron of Cottage 9 at the O. S. and S. O. Home, which position she has held for the last six years, is leaving Xenia Thursday for Springfield, where she will be with relatives. Mrs. Pulwider's marriage to a Mr. Rice, of Kentucky, has been quietly announced to take place within the near future.

Daily Health Talks A WORD ABOUT THE KIDNEYS BY DOCTOR WATSON.

People are easily frightened when they think something is the matter with their lungs or heart, and well they may be; but few people understand the dangers of diseased kidneys. These organs have a duty of vital importance to perform, and if they are diseased, there is no telling how or where the symptoms may appear. The kidneys are filters, and when they are healthy they remove the poisons from the blood and purify it. When the kidneys are diseased, the poisons are spread everywhere, and one of these poisons is uric acid. The uric acid is carried all through the system and deposited in various places, in the form of urate salts--in the feet, ankles, wrists and back--often forming bags under the eyes. Sometimes the resulting trouble is called rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica and backache. Finally, come stone in the bladder, diabetes and Bright's disease. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., in recent years, discovered that a certain combination of remedies would dissolve uric acid (urate salts) in the system. He found this combination to be harmless so that he made it up in tablets of double strength, and called them Auric Tablets. They dissolve uric acid in the human system as hot coffee dissolves sugar. If you have uric acid troubles, don't delay in taking Auric Tablets, which can be secured in the drug stores. You can write Dr. Pierce too, and he will tell you what to eat and how to live so that more uric acid will not form in your system. Dr. Pierce will not charge for this advice.

Does Your Food Kick Back?
Thousands upon thousands are taking Pepsinco, the marvel of the 20th century, because they could not eat a meal without distress, pain and a disagreeable bloating. Today they are better, able to eat what they want and when they want. They took Pepsinco. Do you feel bad after eating. Take Pepsinco. They will aid digestion. No pain, distress. It's like living life over again when you take Pepsinco. The absence of pain and sourness makes you contented and happy. Mr. F. said Pepsinco saved his life simply because he did not dare eat things good for him and he was slowly starving to death. Pepsinco helped him. All Druggists and recommended Pepsinco.

Lieutenant Lowell Fess, son of Congressman S. D. Fess of Yellow Springs, who but lately returned from France where he was fighting with a machine gun unit, addressed a meeting of the Men's Club of the Northminster Presbyterian church in Springfield Tuesday night.

Great Truth. If we knew half as much at forty as we thought we knew at twenty, we could be drawing princely salaries as prophets, instead of grubbing along at plain work.--Exchange.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers --Meat forms uric acid.

We are a nation of meat eaters and a well-known authority, who warns us our blood is filled with uric acid, says to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble. The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system. When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders. Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active. adv

Healthy Mothers Healthy Babies
Every true mother realizes the fact that her baby's health depends upon her own, that the very vitality of her child is influenced by her own physical condition. How important it is, therefore, to guard against any derangement of the female organs, which induce general weakness, nervousness, constant fatigue and utter inability to properly care for her child. Please remember, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and strength to thousands of such mothers.
Mitchell, Ind.--"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me so much during the time I was looking forward to the coming of my little one that I am recommending it to other expectant mothers. Before taking it, some days I suffered with neuralgia so badly that I thought I could not live, but after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was entirely relieved of neuralgia. I had gained in strength and was able to go around and do all my housework. My baby when 7 months old weighed 19 pounds and I feel better than I have for a long time. I never had any medicine do me so much good."--Mrs. PEARL MONTAN, Mitchell, Ind.
Good health during and after maternity is a most important factor to both mother and child, and many letters have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., telling of health restored during this trying period by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

AIMS OF COMMITTEE ON DEVASTATED FRANCE

The American Committee for Devastated France is operating under French military orders, and some of the fundamental principles of its work are:

To reinstate the returning refugee upon his own land and aid him to become a self-supporting citizen, rather than a public charge on the municipality to which he had been sent.

To raise food in the devastated area that French and Allied armies may be saved from starvation.

To encourage trade between the neighboring war-wrecked villages by a chain of small shops wherein household necessities may be bought. The Committee stocks the shops on easy payments from the merchants.

To re-stock small farms with goats, cows, rabbits, chickens, sheep, pigs, and so forth, that the farmer may be fed and the civilian population recommence to earn his livelihood.

To plant trees, grain, and vegetables.

To supply the mechanic with tools of his trade.

To establish dispensaries and civilian hospitals which up to date have been unknown in the devastated region.

Everyday Etiquette

"When a girl is keeping company with a young man and receives an invitation to a banquet to which she asks the young man to accompany her, should the girl pay her own way and the man his?" asked Eunice. "It is quite the proper thing for the man to pay the bill and he would probably suggest doing so. Otherwise you might get the tickets in advance and tell him of the fact when giving the invitation," suggested her aunt.

RALPH HARNESS DIES IN FRANCE OF PNEUMONIA

That Ralph Harness, well-known Xenian drafted from this city last May, died in France on February 3rd, was the information received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Harness of the Eleazar road at four o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

The message was the official notice from the government and contained only the information that the young man had died on the above date, of lobar pneumonia. The message did not state where his death took place and his relatives only know that he was somewhere in France.

Young Harness left this city with a contingent of drafted men for Camp Taylor, Kentucky, last May 14th, and was later assigned to a Machine Gun Corps. He left this country for France on August 7th, and saw active service with Co. B, of the 21st Machine Gun Battalion of the Seventh Division. It was while on duty on a guard line that a German shell struck him on the leg, severely injuring it, and he was sent to Base Hospital No. 55 for attention. He was just discharged from the hospital and took his examination on January 7th, after spending two months recuperating. After passing the examination he was sent to rejoin his company.

Mr. and Mrs. Harness received a letter from their son Monday in which he said that he had a cold when he rejoined his outfit and wasn't feeling well. He said that he was marching about seven hours every day and that his feet got wet, this condition probably leading to the pneumonia which later caused his death.

Ralph was born in Greene County and was the youngest of four sons, being 25 years of age, last April 13th. He had been living in this city previous to his term of service, for a time operating an automobile sales branch on West Main street for N. N. Hunter of Jamestown and he was also in the insurance business here for a time. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Harness, of the Eleazar road, and three brothers, Chester, of Richmond, Ind., Orin, of the Union road and Volney of the Wilmington pike.

The Head of the Family.

GRANGE RALLY WEEK TO BE CELEBRATED IN GREENE COUNTY

In common with the rest of the state, Greene county will celebrate Grange Rally week, the last week in February, commencing, Washington's birthday, February 22nd.

Shawhan, county deputy and organizer, Harry Caton, state Grange lecturer is assisting in these meetings, and Wednesday afternoon he addressed a gathering at Yellow Springs. Wednesday night a meeting will be held in Caesarscreek township. There will be other meetings during the week.

AFTER INFLUENZA, GRIP

And Other Prostrating Diseases That Exhaust the Strength
There is always a depleted condition of the blood, that extreme tired feeling, nervousness and digestive weakness from which recovery is slow unless a good medicine is taken.

The lack of red corpuscles in the blood makes it too thin properly to nourish the body, and the general prostration, annoying humors, boils, loss of appetite and poor digestion prevent progress towards health.

Hood's Sarsaparilla meets these conditions perfectly, as many people know. It has proved the greatest blood-purifying, vitalizing medicine. Nothing else so good in Spring.

It is made from a formula comprising ingredients often used by the best physicians for impure blood, scrofula, rheumatism, weakness. Truly it purifies the blood and makes the weak strong. For a fine family cathartic, take Hood's Pills. adv

A HOME MADE GRAY HAIR REMEDY

You Can Make at Home a Better Gray Hair Remedy Than You Can Buy.

Gray streaked or faded hair is not only unbecoming, but unnecessary. You can darken it without using a dye.

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home, at very little cost, that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 1-4 ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost, or the druggist will put it up for you. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray haired person look twenty years younger. It is not a dye, it does not color the most delicate scalp; is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off." adv
